Community Mennonite, Markham, Illinois is seeking a half-time pastor. We are located in the south suburbs of Chicago. We follow God by way of Jesus. We believe in peaceful and non-violent solutions to violence. We hold to the Anabaptist theology and doctrine. We support one another through welcoming and honoring the gifts of all people in the congregation. With times of thoughtful worship, upholding each other in intellectual integrity and support of each other as we go through this journey together. What we would like to find is a pastor who is nurturing and able to help us grow in Christ, each of us individually and collectively.

Some of the expectations:

- *Sunday morning worship service – preparing and providing the message, coordinating with the worship lead for the rest of the service (prayers, hymns, communion, etc.)
- *Providing pastoral service to congregational members in need (visiting shut-ins, following up with individuals/families in crisis, etc.)
- *Baptisms, membership classes, weddings, funerals, and discipling

Let's see how the Spirit's call would best fit your gifts to the expectations of Community Mennonite Church.
