

Resources for establishing conscientious objector status

Conscientious Objection Resources

Source: Quaker House

<https://www.quakerhouse.org/>

GI Rights Hotline

<http://www.girights.org>

The hotline is a network of nonprofit, non-governmental organizations who provide information to service members about military discharges, grievance and complaint procedures, and other civil rights. The Hotline and Web site are excellent resources for persons who have already signed up for the military and have changed their minds, or for persons serving in active duty or reserve roles who may be seeking a discharge.

Resources on Conscientious Objection:

Questions for the Conscientious Objector

Source: Center on Conscience & War

www.centeronconscience.org

This is a very helpful set of questions to help conscientious objectors understand the nature and depth of their beliefs about war and military service.

Courage to Resist Supporting the Troops that Refuse to Fight

<http://www.couragetoresist.org>

Committee Opposed to Militarism and the Draft

<http://www.comdsd.org/>

Resources for alternatives to military service

Project Yano (Youth and Non-Military Opportunities)
<http://www.projectyano.org/>

Responding to Military Recruitment in Schools

The National Organization Opposing the Militarization of Youth
<https://nnomy.org/>

Military Recruiting Report to the Senate and House Committees on Armed Services <http://www.gao.gov/new.items/d031005.pdf>

This report reviews the effectiveness of military recruitment and advertising
Military Personnel United States General Accounting Office

Last edited 7/2024